"Round Thy Walls the Ivy Twineth"

Published by the Students of the

James T. Lockwood High School

Warwick, Rhode Island

Foreward

In presenting the 1955 edition of the Reminder, we have attempted to depict and preserve forever the entire activity of the final year within the ivy-clad walls of James T.
L o c k w o o d   H i g h   S c h o o l .

The hour glass with its ever-flowing sands of time represents the last hours of Lockwood's existence as a high school. Throughout the book there appears the friendly little B l u e

Devil, our athletic symbol,

whose life, along

with Lockwood High

School's, has come to an end.

It is with great pride in having been a part of Lockwood's glorious past, with a little sadness in parting, and with the assurance of success for the years to come that we present to you the final edition of the Lockwood Reminder.

DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1955, hereby dedicate the final edition of the Lockwood Reminder to Mrs. Dorothy Mayor. Serving as our class adviser from 1951 to 1954, Mrs. Mayor gave abundantly of her time not only during school hours but after school and on weekends as well. Our success in class projects could not have been accomplished without her expert guidance and kindly advice. Her patience and understanding, her devotion to high ideals, her spirit of progress, and her eagerness to make the best available to all her pupils have been a source of inspiration to all of us.

To you, Mrs. Mayor, we render our heartfelt appreciation and are proud to dedicate our yearbook to you, our teacher, adviser, and friend.

THE SANDS OF OUR TIMES

Hope for the best, but prepare for the worst
Old English proverb

Yes, these were the sentiments of a bewildered-looking group of seventh graders, as they mounted the steps of Lockwood High School one gray September morning in 1949. They were awestricken with the vastness of this new place and lost in perplexity by the sea of strangers which seemed to engulf them. Little did they realize that these so-called strangers, classmates and teachers alike, would one day be numbered among their most intimate friends. That was the confused and insecure Class of 1955.

As the days turned into months, we gradually became accustomed to the daily routine of high school life. The rotating system of class periods was not quite so confusing, and we even ventured to enter the Junior High Play Competition with "Help Wanted." Some of the more enterprising members of the class dared to take part in the R. I. Junior High Drama Festival, which was being held for the first time. Even though we did not win, we baby Blue Devils had taken our first step.

*"Tis education forms the common mind
Just as the twig is bent the tree's inclined*
Alexander Pope

Grade eight was another year of adjustment for us. As we made more friends and entered into more activities, we were being molded not only academically, but socially as well. Members of the class joined organizations such as Jr. High Y, Band, Orchestra, Masquettes, and started to take part in sports activities. Again, we entered the Jr. High Play Competition, this time with "Wildcat Willie." We were growing.

There is no royal road to learning
Euclid

In the ninth grade divergent courses of study were pursued by each of us. Some preferred business training, others vocational training, and others followed the traditional literary curriculum. At first we found our new subjects extremely difficult to master, but we learned to study; and with study came reward. Twenty-seven of us were elected to the National Junior Honor Society.

This was the year that we really commenced working as a class. Our greatest achievement was the "Spring Frolic." It was the first time in the history of Lockwood that a Freshman class had sponsored a dance, and, to the pleasant surprise of all, it was a pronounced success. The Class of Fifty-five was making itself known.

"Time Flies"
Ovid

There we were in our first years of high school. It didn't seem possible. To start off the year with gusto, we held a paper drive, which was an overwhelming success. The Gypsy Jubilee, a juke-box dance which was held in the Study Hall, added to our ever-increasing list of activities. In the meantime fellow classmates were participating in the football team, the cheerleading squad, Good Will, and various organizations and clubs. At last we were genuine Lockwoodians.

"We don't know one millionth of one per cent about anything" Thomas Edison

No matter what course we were following there was no doubt about it—scholastically, grade eleven was the most difficult of all. It seemed that the more we learned, the more there was to learn. Nevertheless, we managed to find time for a combination paper and bottle drive, "The Sweetheart Ball," and the crowning event of the year, our Junior-Senior Prom. We worked harmoniously with the Senior class to make the prom, "Garden in the Rain," an outstanding event. We were now prepared to ascend to the fourth of our high school career and claim the title of "The Senior Class of Nineteen hundred fifty-five."

The price of wisdom is above rubies.
Job 28:81

It was not until our Senior year that we realized the value of a sound education, and we made one final effort to strive for perfection in all our endeavors. We began by electing a very capable Executive Committee with "Pete" Erickson in command as class President. After our Senior pictures had been taken, we embarked on the money-making project of the year, "The Holly Hop," our Christmas dance held in the Auditorium, and everyone agreed that it was a breath-taking, beautiful spectacle. Another major event was the annual Varsity Revue, "Hit the Road," in which practically the whole class took part. We must not forget to mention our valiant football team, which captured the State Championship. We are proud that Lockwood was a magnificent success.

A week of February came relief, for Mid Year Exams were gone forever, and we concentrated on the production of our Senior Play, "What A Life." Much time and energy were consumed in this show of shows, but this hilarious comedy was well worth the toil we put into it. The more fortunate members of the class had the unique opportunity to travel, either in the Florida Exchange, the U. N. Trip to Washington, D. C., or to the New England Music Festival in Vermont. Honors Day brought recognition to more brilliant classmates who became members of the R. I. Honor Society.

The Senior Prom, Class Day, and our Class Banquet were unforgettable events, then the big night finally arrived. This was the Grand Finale—this was Graduation. As we stood waiting to receive our diplomas, our minds wandered over the six years we had spent at Lockwood. They were years of learning, laughter, friendship, and even trial and tribulation sometimes, but they had been the happiest years we had ever known. As we sang the "Alma Mater" for the last time, there was many a tear dimmed eye, but in every heart was the knowledge that we, the last class ever to graduate from Lockwood High School, had done our best. We could do no more.

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our life sublime
And, departing, leave behind
Footprints on the sands of time
Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

Student Advisory Committee

As a result of a study made by the Junior and Senior Chapters of the Student Advisory Committee replaced detention as a method for dealing with school disciplinary problems. The work of these bodies is to advise students who do not conform to the accepted standards of school conduct.

The committees are composed of nine members, three from each grade. Members are elected by the students within their respective grades.

A chairman and a secretary are elected by the members of each committee for a term of three months.

This innovation proved to be a successful venture.

Farewell To Alma Mater

'Tis only with the passing years
That we shall learn how dear thou art,
How firm the ties of love that bind
Us to thy mighty mother-heart.

Thine were the hands that guided us
Along the thorny paths of Truth,
Firmly directing to their goal
The aimless wanderings of youth.

Thou didst prepare our fallow minds
That seeds of knowledge might take root,
Sublimely trusting Time to bring
Thy sole reward—the perfect fruit.

Our bodies knew thy watchful care:
We learned the tender reverence paid
Those temples of the living God,
Each in His form and image made.

Thou wast our refuge from the storm,
Our happy hours thou too hast known:
To share in triumphs yet to come
We proudly claim thee as our own.

What worth we have we owe to thee,
O, cherished more than tongue can tell.
Forget thy children not—and now,
Hail, Alma Mater, and farewell!

Nancy,
 To one of us (cheerleader)
 the very best of everything to a really swell kid. It's really been fun this winter cheering at the games, hasn't it? Who knows, maybe we'll be able to do some more of the same next year and keep picturing cheering. I'll see you next year at the new school.

Love ya,
